The Online Learning Scholarship

Funded by: Arden University / Open to: International students who are joining us online from North & south America, CIS, Europe (Non EU) & Australia and Oceania. See our T&Cs for specific countries.

Candidates will be considered based on their Qualifying Statement where each applicant should include a history of activities demonstrating their willingness to learn and succeed. Applicants should also describe how undertaking the programme of their choice will affect their career, educational, and personal goals. Recipients of this award will be expected to act as ambassadors for Arden University and assist with marketing efforts once awarded.

The Sherryl Kintu Scholarship

Open to all blended learning and online learning applicants to business and graphic design courses at Arden University. See our Ts& Cs for specific details.

The Sherryl Kintu Scholarship scheme was set up as a tribute to, and in recognition of, the passions and interests of Sherryl Kintu, who was a dedicated employee of Global University Systems for 9 years, where she rose from Executive Assistant to a Director level position. Sherryl sadly passed away in April 2021. In assessing your application, the Sherryl Kintu Fund Board (SKFB) will look for a number of qualities in line with aims and objectives of the scholarship. In particular:

- The overall quality of your application - clear evidence of 'passion', 'drive', creativity. and ambition will carry particular weight.
- The apparent need for funding.
- The goals and progression you will achieve arising from the Scholarship.

Recipients of this award will be expected to act as ambassadors for Arden University and assist with marketing efforts once awarded.
